A 2022 Peer Exchange Series for former CPBST sites

UC Berkeley SafeTREC and California Walks are hosting a three-part peer exchange series, support communities as they work to implement the recommendations developed during their Community Pedestrian and Bicycle Safety Training (CPBST) workshops. Residents, practitioners, and non-governmental organizations from communities across the state are invited to share their experiences implementing pedestrian and bicycle safety improvements to make walking and biking safer, navigating obstacles, and connecting with each other.
